

Discover the part of New York
some people love most.

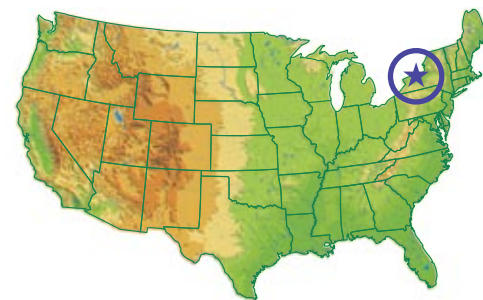

visitrochester.com
rochestermadeforliving.com

© 2007 VisitRochester

Greater Rochester was recently ranked among the top 10 cities in the country by the prestigious Places Rated Almanac. But besides our low cost of housing, what puts us in the company of towns like San Francisco, Seattle and Boston? Our arts and culture. Our educational institutions. Our four-season recreational appeal. And that's just to name a few.

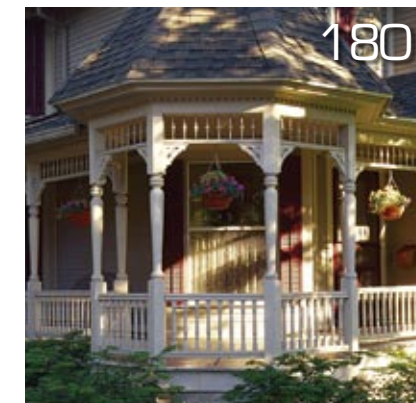

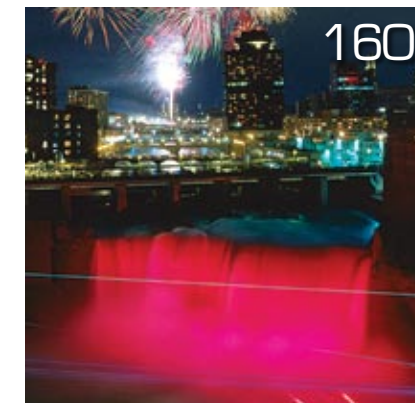

For a weekend. Or a lifetime.

Come discover why Rochester is made for living.

PROFILE

Rochester

- WORD OF MOUTH 146
- THE NATIVE & THE NEWCOMER 152
- THE BIG PICTURE 158
- WHERE TO EAT 204
- WHERE TO STAY 208
- THE LAST WORD 211

Features

Through a New Lens 160

Today's startup companies are building on legacies left a century ago by industrial giants.

by Virginia Citrano

Beyond the Cap and Gown 172

Students at area colleges and universities think about their careers long before graduation.

by Robin L. Flanigan

Up Close 178

Artful details from Rochester's best-loved buildings.

photos by Andy Olenick

The Good Life 180

In search of affordable homes, strong neighborhoods, and some peace and quiet? You'll find them here.

by Robin L. Flanigan

Taking Pride in Health 189

A strong network of hospitals, researchers, and physicians keeps a city healthy.

by Nancy O'Donnell

The Past on Display 194

Take advantage of a rich banquet of entertainment options.

by Amy L. Hatch

PROFILE SERIES

MANAGING DIRECTOR
Stephen Mitchem
336-383-5760
steve.mitchem@paceco.com

PROJECT EDITOR
Marian Cowhig
marian.cowhig@paceco.com

ART DIRECTOR
David R. Deasy

EDITORIAL INTERNS
Jessica Frizen
Courtney Bowman

ART INTERN
Courtney McClellan

PROFILE: ROCHESTER PHOTOGRAPHER
Andy Olenick of Fotowerks

PROFILE: ROCHESTER WRITERS
Virginia Citrano
Robin L. Flanigan
Amy L. Hatch
John Maginnes
Nancy O'Donnell
Martha-Page Ransdell

OPENING SPREAD
The Rochester skyline as seen from Corn Hill Landing.
Photo by Andy Olenick

